Naples Central School

Naples, New York

An aerial photograph of a school campus. In the foreground, a large, multi-story school building with a flat roof and several windows is visible. To its right, a tall, narrow clock tower rises above the roofline. Adjacent to the main building is a large, rectangular parking lot filled with numerous cars. Behind the parking lot, a dense line of trees separates the campus from a large, open field. In the background, beyond the field, there are more buildings, including a prominent white barn with a dark roof, and a road with some vehicles. The overall scene is captured from a high angle, looking down on the campus and its surroundings.

Another Day

As students, we tend to observe a school day as boring and perhaps somewhat unnecessary. Letting school become a routine in our lives often served only to dull the senses. We no longer noticed those friendly voices echoing in our ears as we scurried down the hall to class, or pondered an upcoming exam.

In the hustle and bustle of our active lives a few passing glimpses were recorded. Storybook is a collection of those moments as they rushed by us in 1973.

The Day Starts

in Different Ways

What a Way to Start the Day

Early in the morning, everything seems to go wrong. Pens don't write, pencils break, and with all the other things happening, you are sure to lose your lunch money. The magic tricks you are practicing for Study Hall go haywire, as does your brain in that last minute of cramming for that third period test someone reminded you of. If you have a book in your locker, the odds are one hundred to one that you won't be able to get it open. If you are one of the lucky people who can get their lockers open, you will probably not only forget the book, but shut your coat in the door. All in all, it truthfully could be said that mornings are not a good time for anything but sleeping.

*Things Start
Looking Up*

A Welcome Break

Lunch period brought forth many reactions from the students. Some would complain about how lousy the food was, after polishing off a double lunch. Others would engage in vegetable warfare, with peas, beans and corn flying across the room. Some would just sit and study the eating habits of the Naples student. Still others would try to avoid the cafeteria entirely by eating in the Home Ec. room, or studying in the band room. Lunch was looked forward to by everyone.

From Our Normal Routine

In spite of all of the jokes going around school about the cafeteria lunches, the cooks did an excellent job of providing us with an appetizing noon meal. Although they were working with a limited budget, they were able to give us an excellent selection. The cafeteria was also the social center of the school. Lunch was the only chance that we had to meet with our friends and discuss the events of the day.

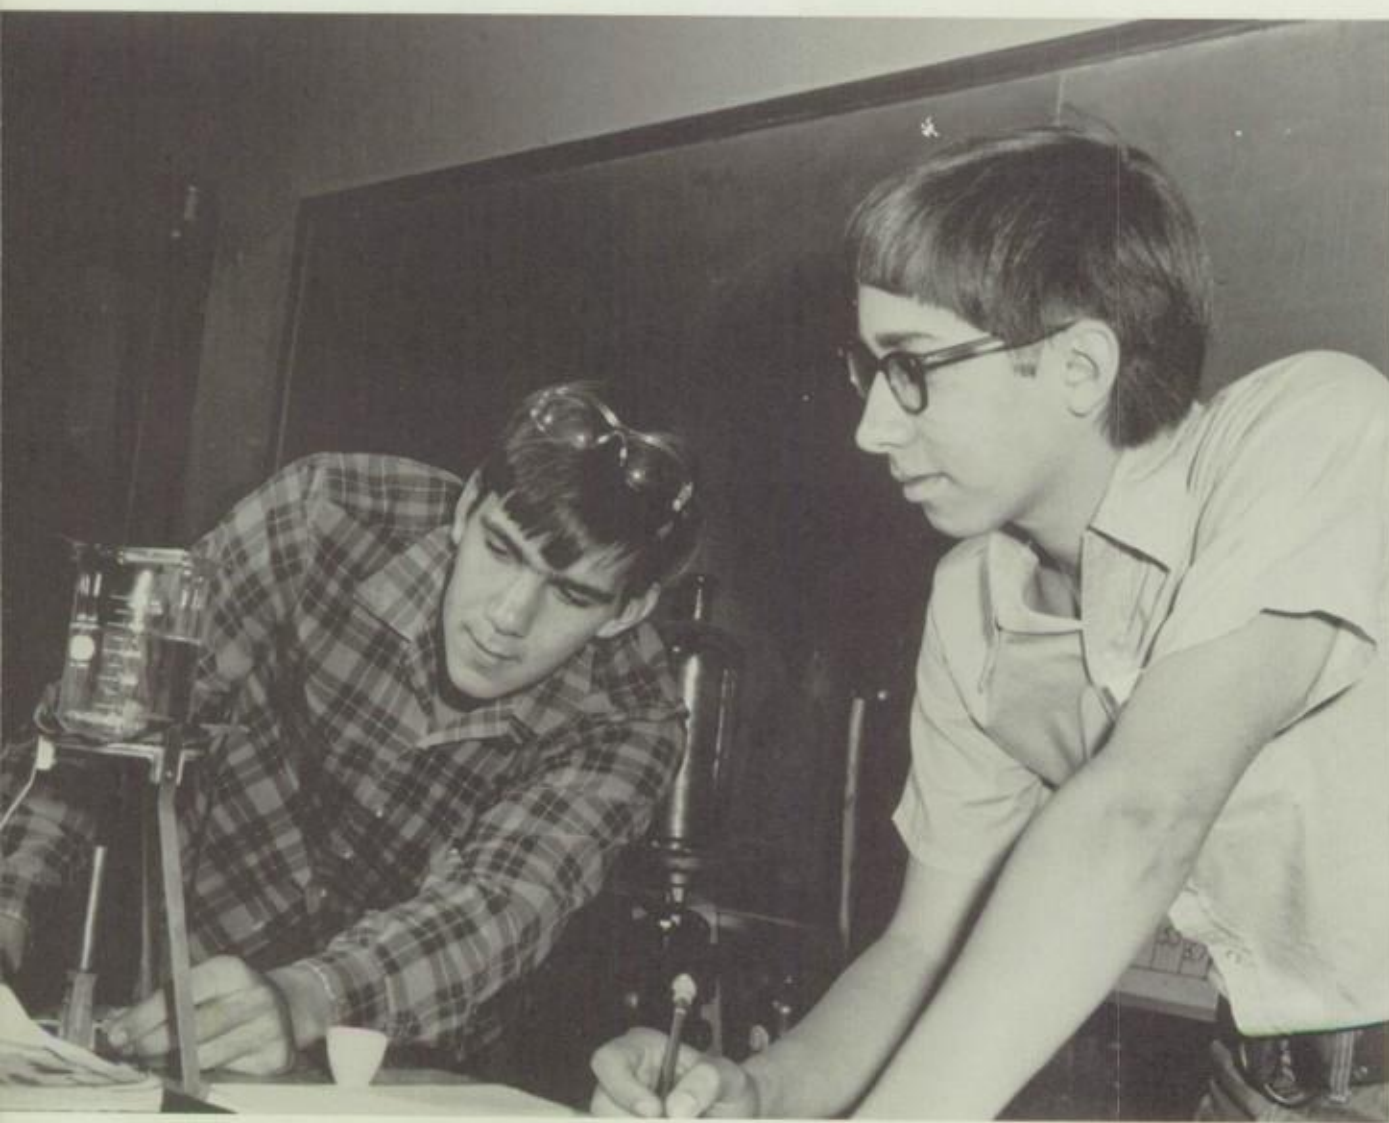

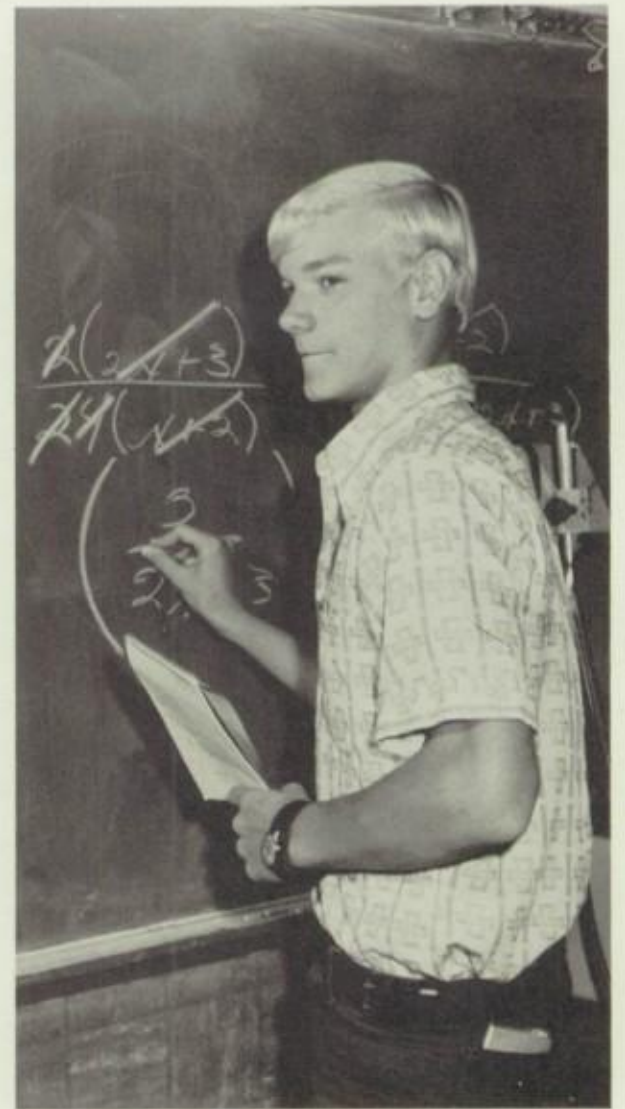

There were many forms of entertainment as well as excellent study programs at N.C.S. Among these were gym classes, the library or maybe the latest gossip among friends. If you were industrious enough to get all the assigned work finished, you might have the opportunity to join in an impromptu checker championship. No matter where you were, you could find something enjoyable to do, if only to let your attention wander from your work to something else .

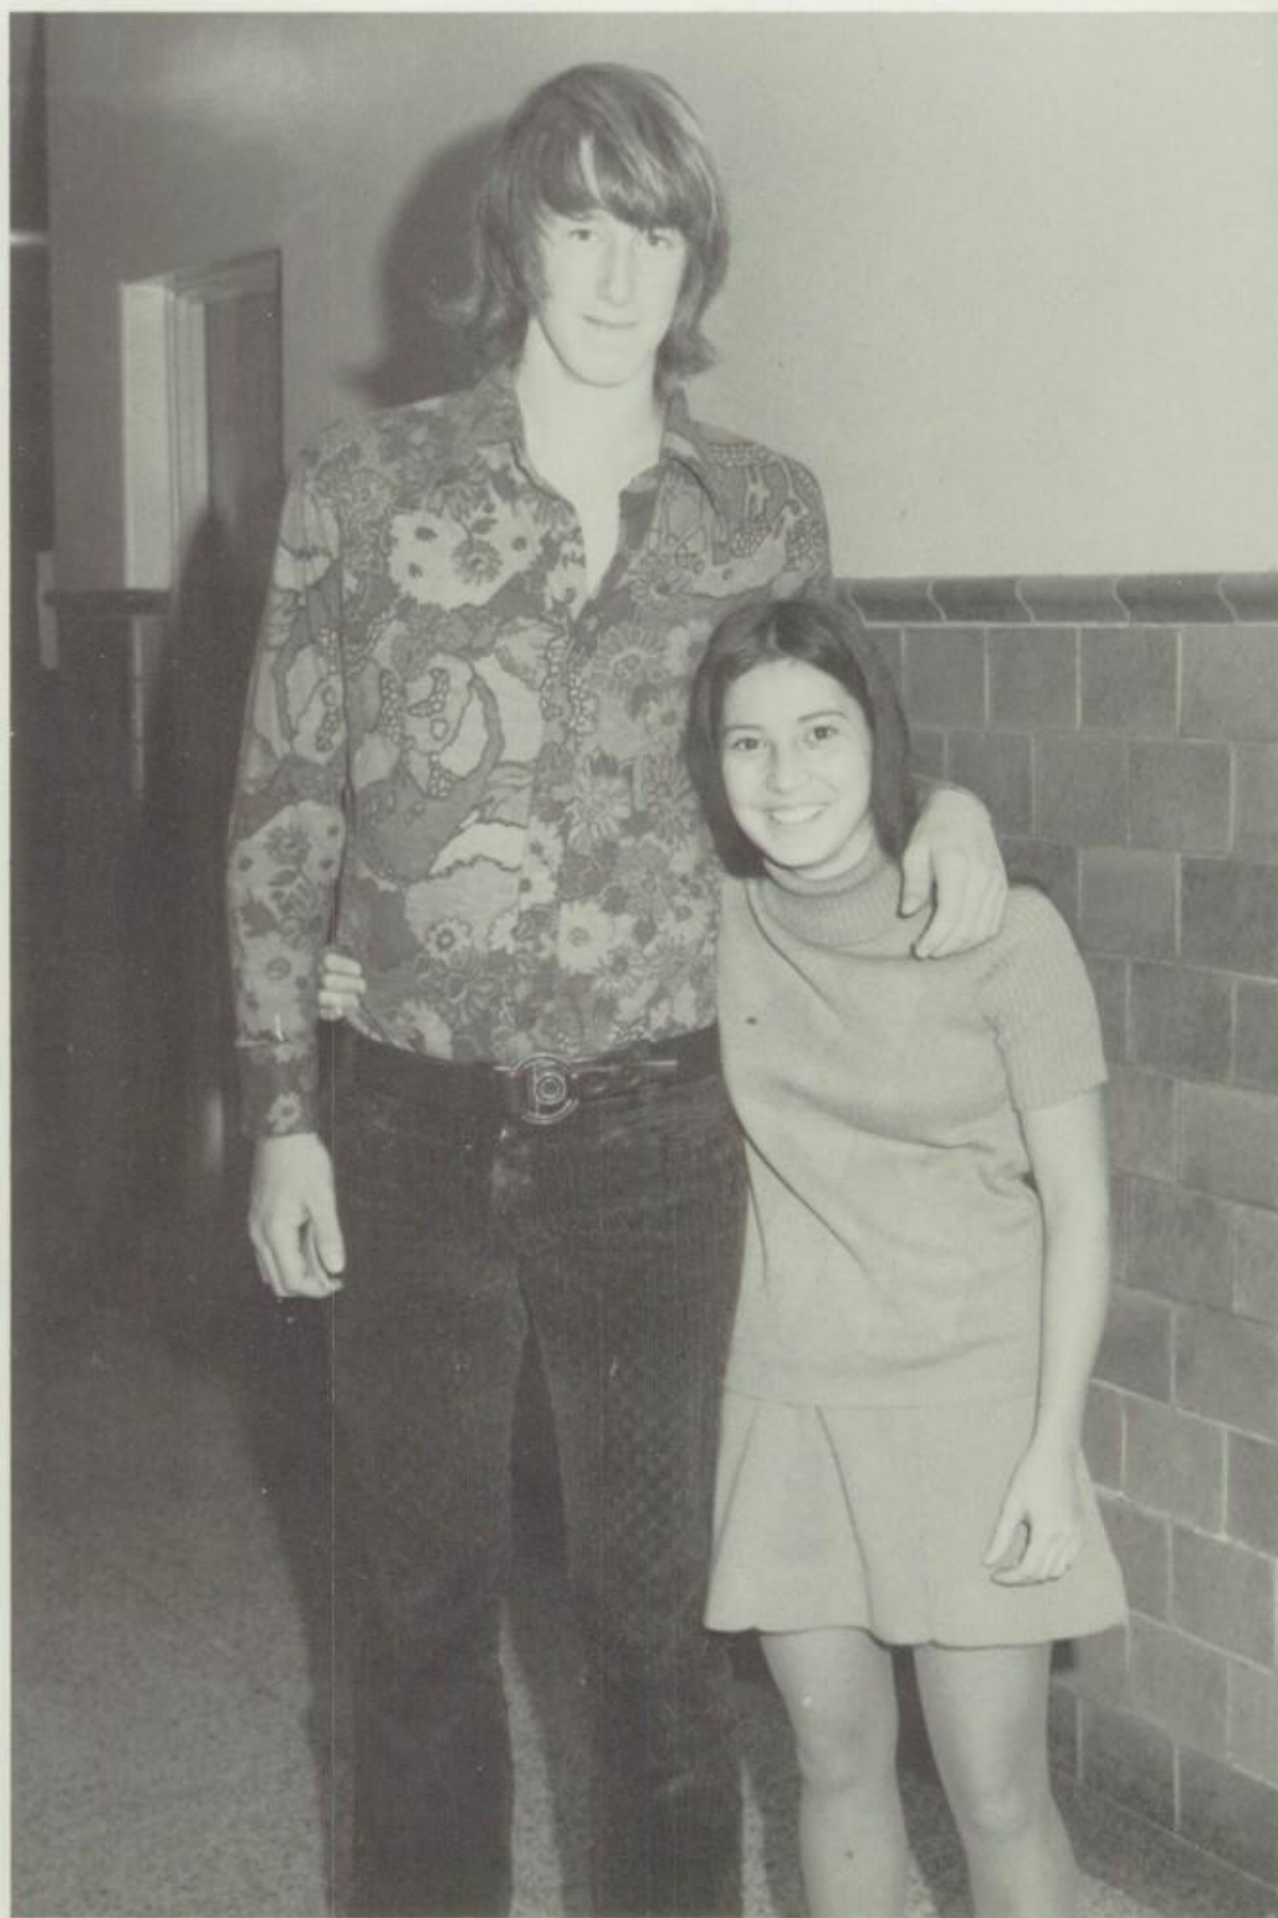

Some Students Worked While Others . . .

Togetherness Makes Life More Fun

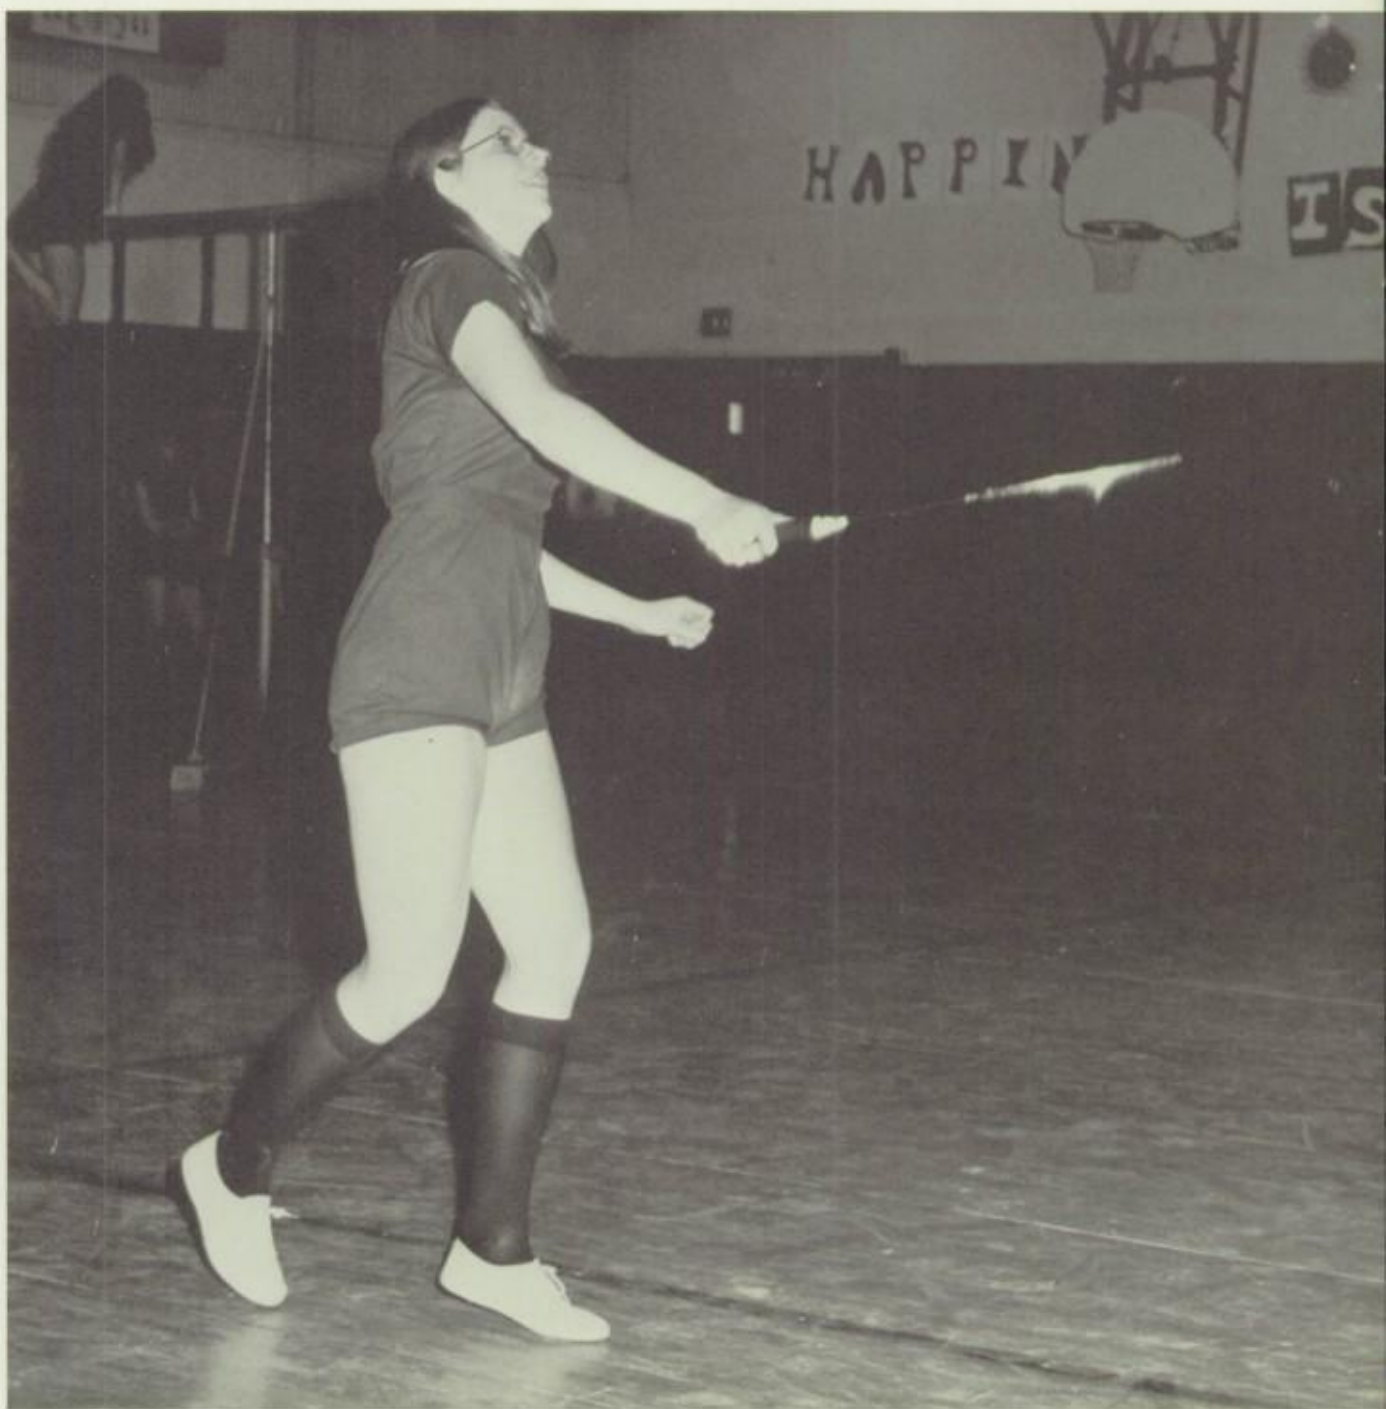

A Little Extra Effort on Everyone's Part

Nearly everyone joined in to make Naples Central a better school. Band members spent many hours practicing to make their concerts a success and to make their marching band a credit to our school. The junior class newspaper staff found putting together their paper was truly an "Experience" for them and for the school. Their sports page, news items, and "Letters-to-the-Editor" really helped represent Neapolitan students and gave them a chance to voice their opinions. Sports always play an important part in the Naples school year, and this year was no exception. Even the girls caught the "sports mania" and produced some impressive winning teams. Some of the more interested players and spectators took time to decorate the sports bulletin board and hang spirit boosting posters. Under the leadership of capable officers the classes worked hard to make their activities successful. Though class rivalry was strong, the classes proved they could work together for the betterment of Naples. All the extra hours spent at school and all the extra effort put forth by students lent itself to making this year a really great year.

As our classes end . . .

In the afternoon at N.C.S., people begin to feel an inspiration of joy, dreaming about their night on the town, their basketball games or about what homework they have. This inspiration shows up in everyone's school work, bringing good class participation.

we go in different directions

This year, Naples was fortunate to have two exchange students from South America. They were Fernando Arango, who was here for ten months from Columbia, and Maria Teresa Jabur. Teresa was visiting the United States from Brazil for three months and became very interested in the Home Ec. classes here at NCS. Fernando was very active in sports during all three seasons while he stayed in Naples. He was never one to let his teammates down.

To some, the day has just begun.

Teamwork and Spirit

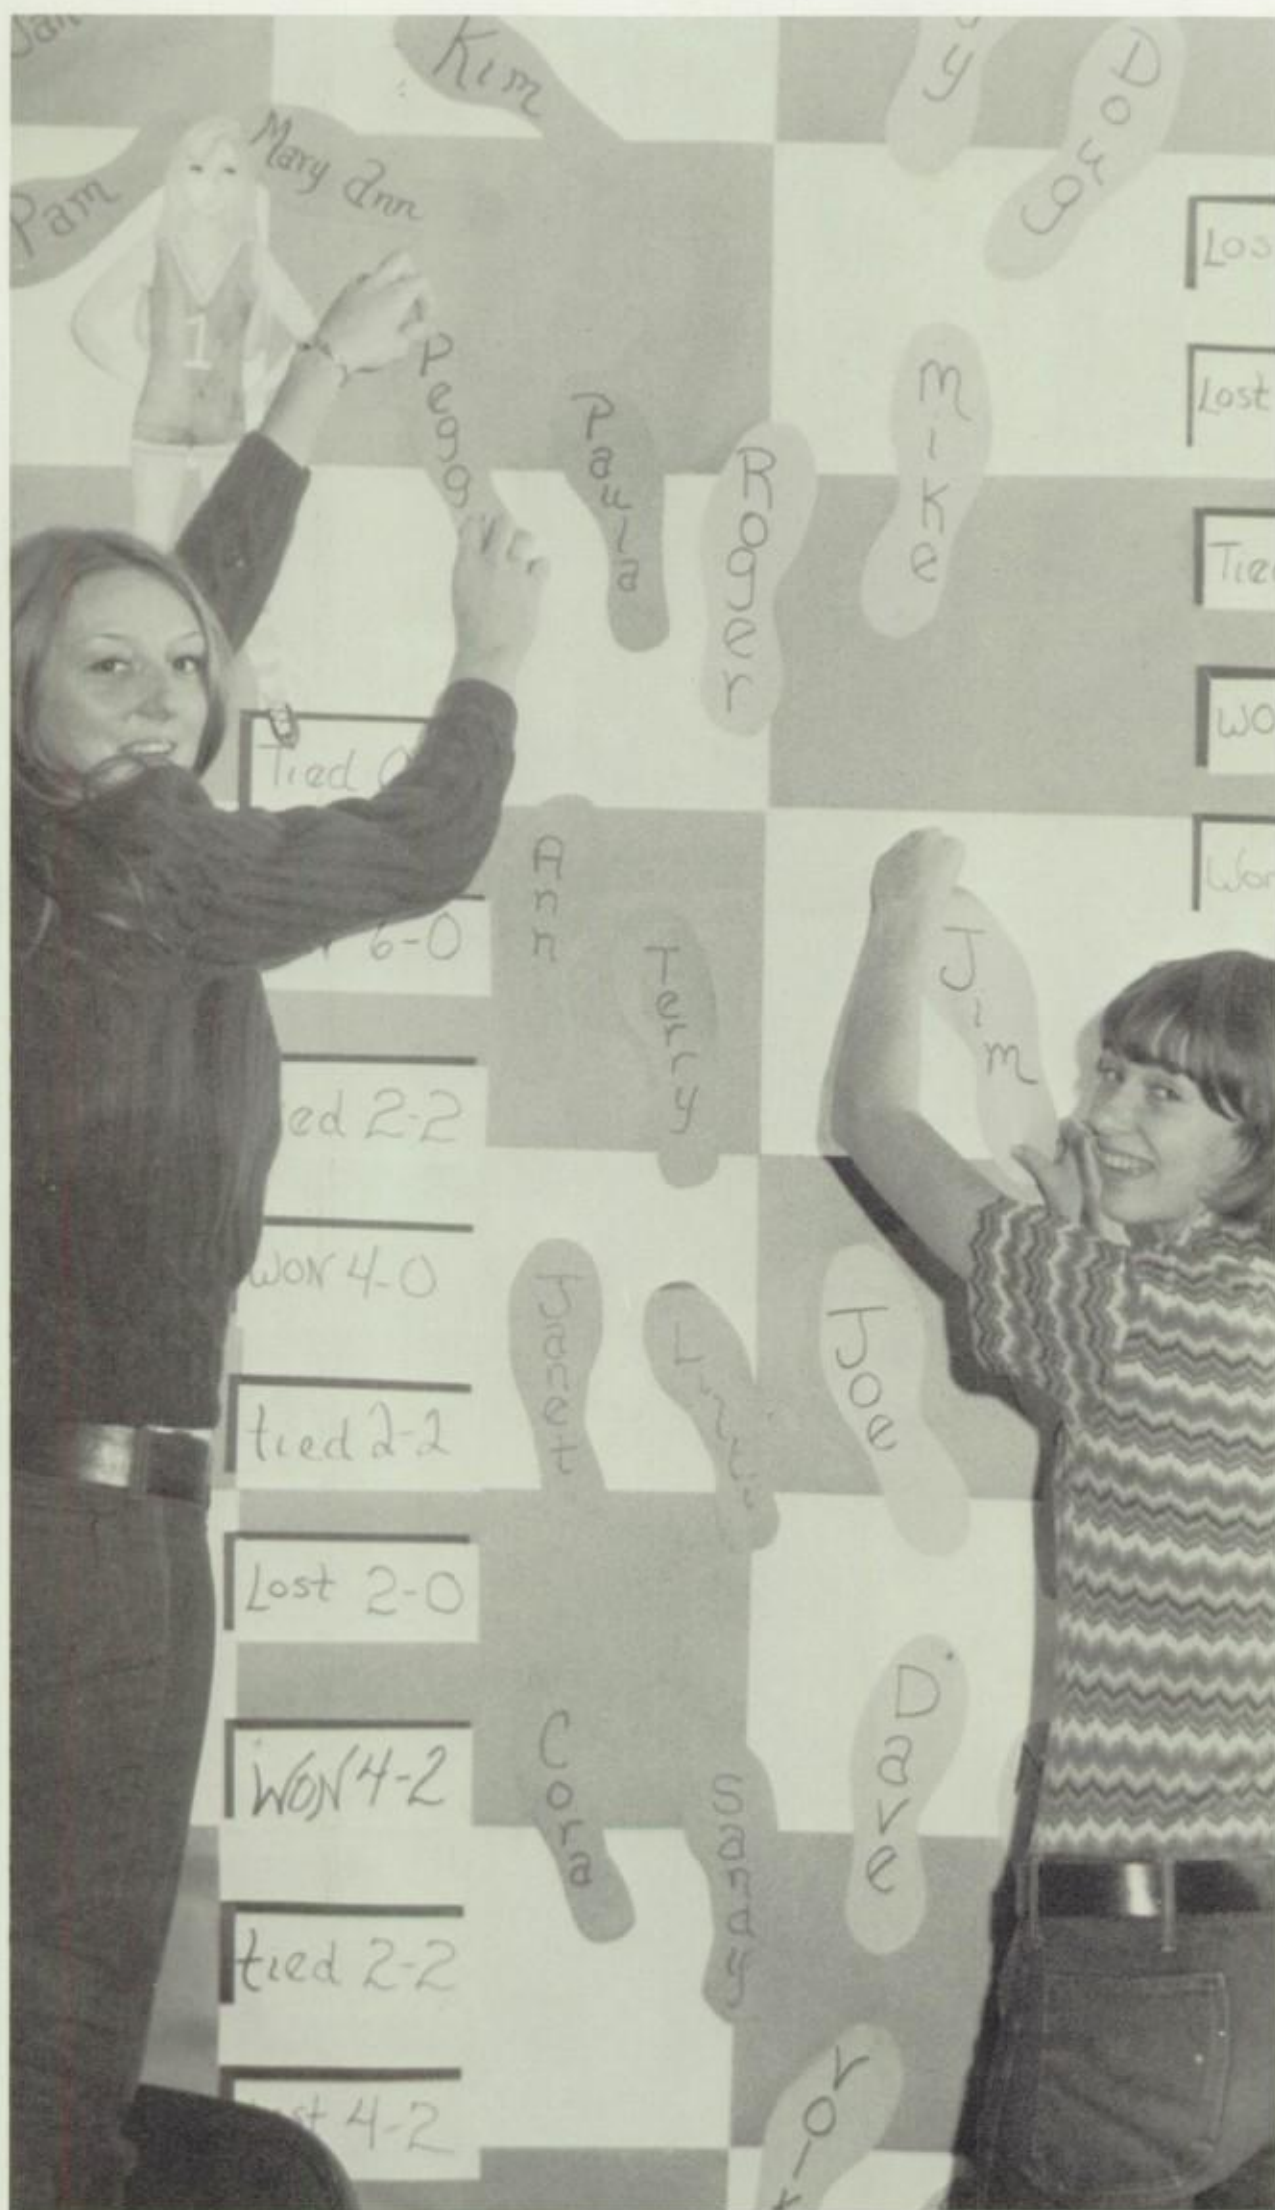

Basketball is a sport which requires teamwork at all times. This year's basketball team certainly worked well together. They were never short on hustle or spirit, and as a result, the games were never decided until the final seconds.

In Memoriam

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

MELODY ANNE HAYES
April 18, 1958 - December 3, 1972

The more we live, more brief appear
Our life's succeeding stages:
A day to childhood seems a year,
And years like passing ages.

The gladsome current of our youth,
Ere passion yet disorders,
Steals lingering like a river smooth
Along its grassy borders.

Heaven gives our years of fading strength
Indemnifying fleetness;
And those of youth, a seeming length,
Proportioned to their sweetness.

Dedication

The 1973 Neapolitan staff has chosen to dedicate this yearbook to a loyal worker and a trusting friend of Naples Central School, Mr. Henry Miller. He has given many years of service to this entire community and has contributed greatly to its educational system in countless numbers of ways. Mr. Miller was born in Naples, and, because of his love for this area, stayed here to raise his two children. Though his children are both grown, he and his wife still live in Naples and enjoy the frequent company of their eight grandchildren. When not with his family or in school, Mr. Miller can usually be found enjoying his favorite pastimes: hunting and fishing.

Mr. Miller has worked within this school for thirty-seven years. Thirty-two of those years were spent teaching the wonders of math and English to countless students in the classroom. Throughout his career, Mr. Miller was as notorious for his rigid discipline as he was for his sense of understanding. With these two methods, he never failed to get any message across to his students. In 1968, he semi-retired and became this school district's attendance officer and all around substitute teacher.

Henry Miller has been a devoted teacher, attendance officer, and substitute for thirty-seven years. Always striving for the betterment of education, he never thought of school as a building or a job, but, instead, it was the students who occupy this school that made it important to him. Thank you, Mr. Miller, for taking time off from your fishing sprees to inspire the minds of so many for so long.

Strong Leadership Promoted Learning

MR. MORTON POINTON

MR. ROBERT LINEHAN

MR. DUANE SCHULTZ

The Board of Education, consisting of Mr. Charles Standish, Mr. Edward Joseph, Mrs. Katherine Abraham, Mr. Erwin Drake, Mr. Ralph Jerome, Mr. Richard Pepp, and Mr. Harry Seager saw two new faces this year. These were Mr. Mark Adams and the Reverend Robert Smith. Together, this group of community minded people has dealt successfully with many financial difficulties. They found time to listen to the students, faculty, and administration of N. C. S. throughout the year. Charles Standish, president of the board for the last twenty-four years, is a man who has always been concerned with the well being of this school. Naples Central School and the Naples community are indebted to him for his many years of service on the board. Mr. Fred Fox, treasurer of the school system, and Mrs. Jane Schenk, the clerk, also deserve thanks.

Naples Central School had a new district principal this year. Mr. Morton Pointon came from New Berlin, where he was also district principal. Mr. Pointon did an excellent job this year reaching all teachers and students. He seemed to have time for everyone, and we were grateful for his personal interest in us.

In our elementary school at N.C.S. Mr. Robert Linehan is one whom all of the younger students admire. As N.C.S.'s elementary principal, he has done an excellent job during his fourteen years of service.

For many years the students and faculty have known that they could depend on Mr. Duane Schultz. After two and a half decades as teacher and principal at N. C. S., Mr. Schultz is retiring. During his years here, he has played an important role in the school system as hall proctor, F.F.A. advisor and disciplinarian. The students of N. C. S. wish to express their appreciation to him for his many years of dedication to the students.

MR. EUGENE WARDEN

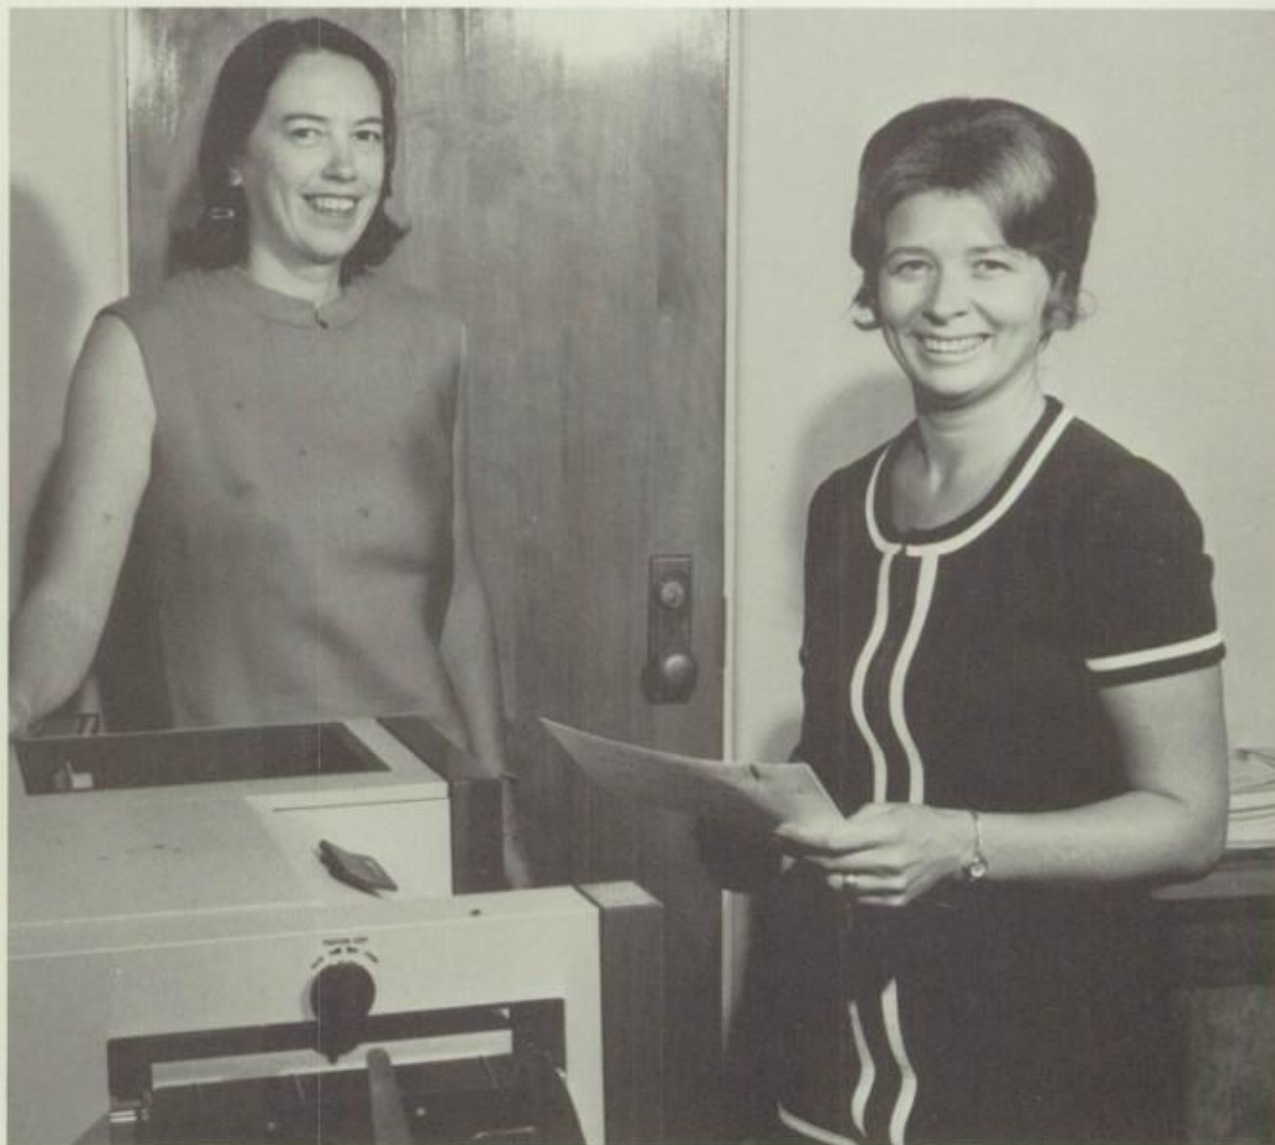

MRS. AGNES MUSNICKI

The man who had the critical job of helping us decide on the correct career for our future was Mr. Eugene Warden. His experience can guide us through the most difficult decisions of our lives.

The lady who kept things operating smoothly over at the elementary school was Mrs. Agnes Musnicki.

Mrs. Jane Schenk and Mrs. Patricia Kovalovsky formed a very efficient team which kept the school secretarial duties well in hand. Besides these important responsibilities, Mrs. Schenk serves as clerk of the Board of Education, and Mrs. Kovalovsky serves as school activities treasurer.

MRS. JANE SCHENK AND MRS. PATRICIA KOVALOVSKY

a Helping Hand

MRS. INEZ MARTIN

Mrs. Inez Martin probably had one of the most important jobs in the school. She had the task of keeping the attendance files in order, and spent many hours working in the guidance office.

Our smiling librarians, Mrs. Merrily Dodson and Mrs. Susan Rauber, make things a little easier for the students. Mrs. Dodson's efforts to improve the students' study and research habits began this year with the library's new audio-visual equipment.

MRS. MERRILY DODSON

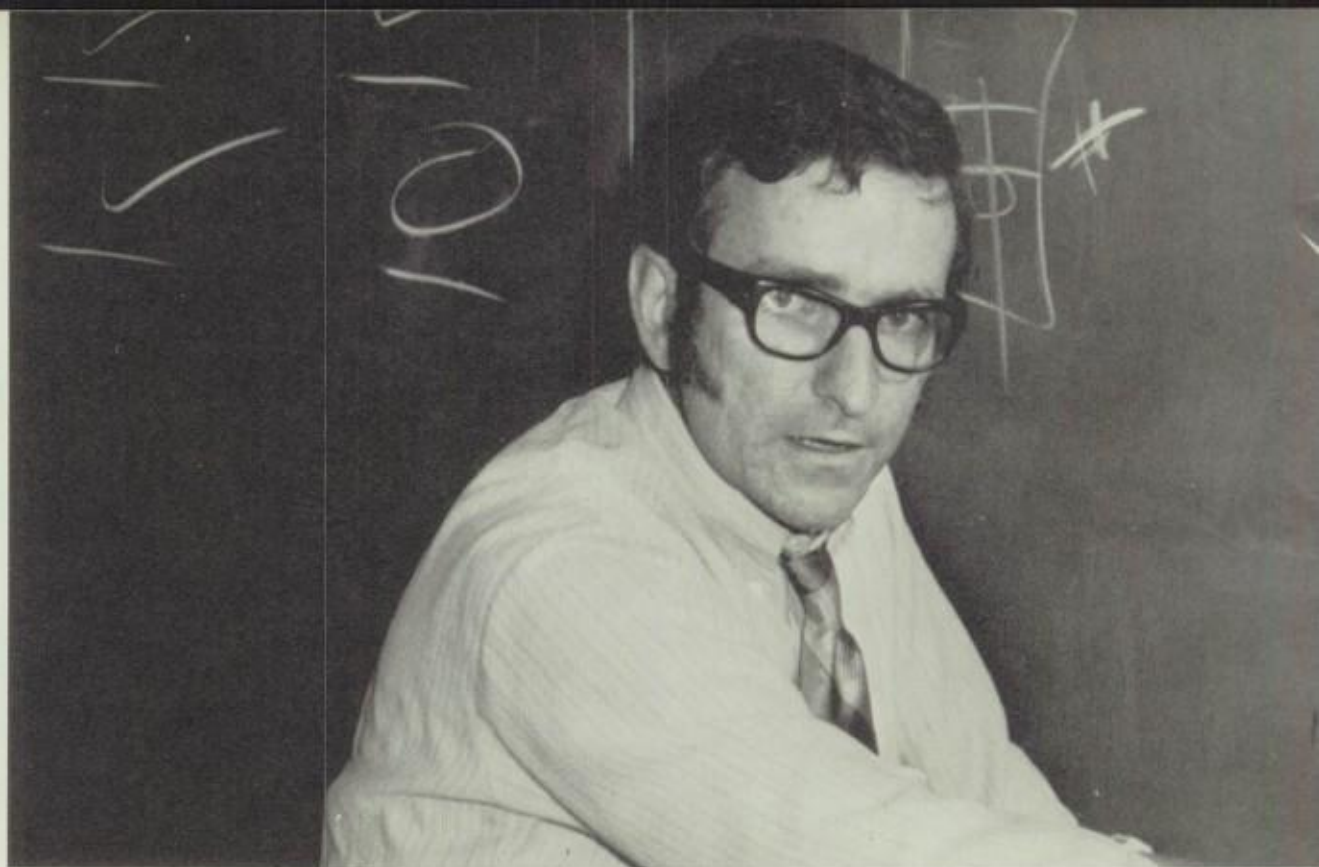

MRS. SUSAN RAUBER

Teaching us how to drive was Mr. Kelly's aim. He also taught students how to use their hands and carpentry skills to create wood projects.

Our vivacious art teacher, Mrs. Juanita Morse, taught her students to draw and paint while contriving to keep raiding students out of her supply closet.

Returning to our school for a second year, Mrs. Jaynes taught us how to sing with feeling. She also had many elementary classes in which she prepared the students for chorus.

MR. THOMAS KELLY

MRS. JUANITA MORSE

MRS. SHARON JAYNES

MRS. KEYRN PERKOWSKI

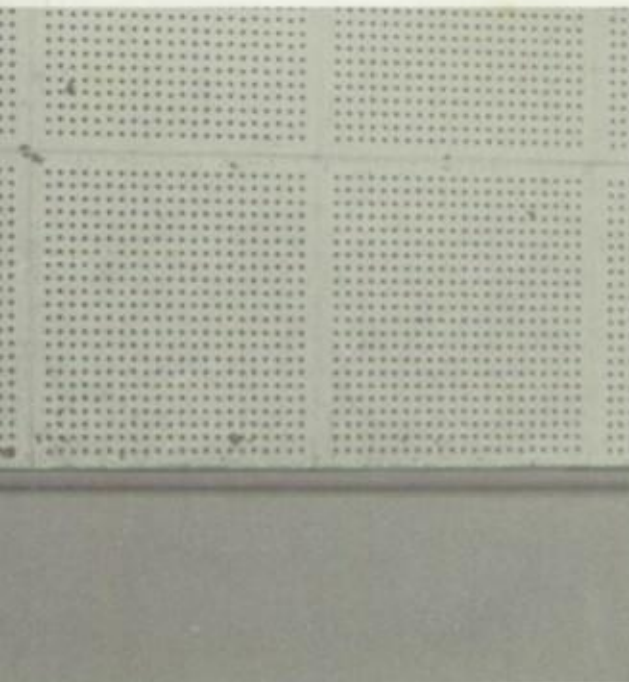

Teaching us all to make beautiful music, Mr. Harold Moore developed our musical skills. He also took students to the county and state music festivals.

With her bright smile, Mrs. LeVantia Harrington taught her students the basics of homemaking. She was always ready to help us with our many "problems" that needed some quick sewing.

Returning home to Naples after a successful sojourn in Ohio, Mr. Everett Fox taught budding architects and builders the skills necessary for metalwork and mechanical drawing.

Another newcomer, Mrs. Keyrn Perkowski, is the elementary music teacher. She taught the "little kids" the basics of music and put on several musical plays.

A Sound Mind . . .

MR. DAVID ROSE AND MISS PAMELA CURTIS

Mr. Charles Ivers was a good example of our N. C. S. dress code. As our business teacher, he made the lessons almost enjoyable with his delightful sense of humor.

A new addition to our staff this year, Miss Frances Arre not only taught typing and shorthand, but also managed our cheerleaders. Her fun-loving nature is a great asset in creating team spirit.

Instruction in the finer points of soccer and bombardment was given to our younger students by Mr. David Rose and Miss Pamela Curtis. Mr. Rose also coached our J. V. basketball team.

MISS FRANCES ARRE

MR. CHARLES IVERS

. . . A Sound Body

MR. KEITH BAKER

MISS MARGARET CIOCCI

Mr. Keith Baker taught the junior and senior high students the fundamentals of staying healthy as well as helping to coach the junior high soccer team.

Mrs. Suzanne Champaigne taught the junior and senior high girls physical education and managed all the girls tri-county sports.

Anyone who attended a N. C. S. soccer game this year was familiar with the sight of Mr. Gary Schenk pacing the sidelines. In addition to making our gym classes more enjoyable, he led our soccer team to the sectionals and coached a successful basketball team.

"You never know what to expect, and the office is a little like Grand Central Station," Miss Margaret Ciocci says. Keeping students and staff in top condition and visiting homes are a few of her many duties.

MR. GARY SCHENK AND MRS. SUZANNE CHAMPAIGNE

Communication . . .

MR. ROBERT VIERHILE

As head of our English department, Mr. Robert Vierhile taught tenth and eleventh grade English. Between putting on skits, delivering speeches, writing a school magazine, and preparing for the Regents, there is never a dull moment in his class.

Miss Marilyn Zwicker, a new member of the Naples faculty, has been preparing her students to face the outside world. In her English classes, she is just like any other teacher, but as yearbook advisor, she is more like the average human.

Mrs. Kathi Nacca returned to the N. C. S. faculty after a year's absence. "Couldn't do without us, eh?" Besides teaching freshmen and seniors English, holding an English seminar, and shouting at flowers, Mrs. Nacca very unselfishly devoted her time to help make the Senior Play a success.

MISS MARILYN ZWICKER

MRS. KATHI NACCA

The Key to Understanding

MRS. JANICE MANGINI

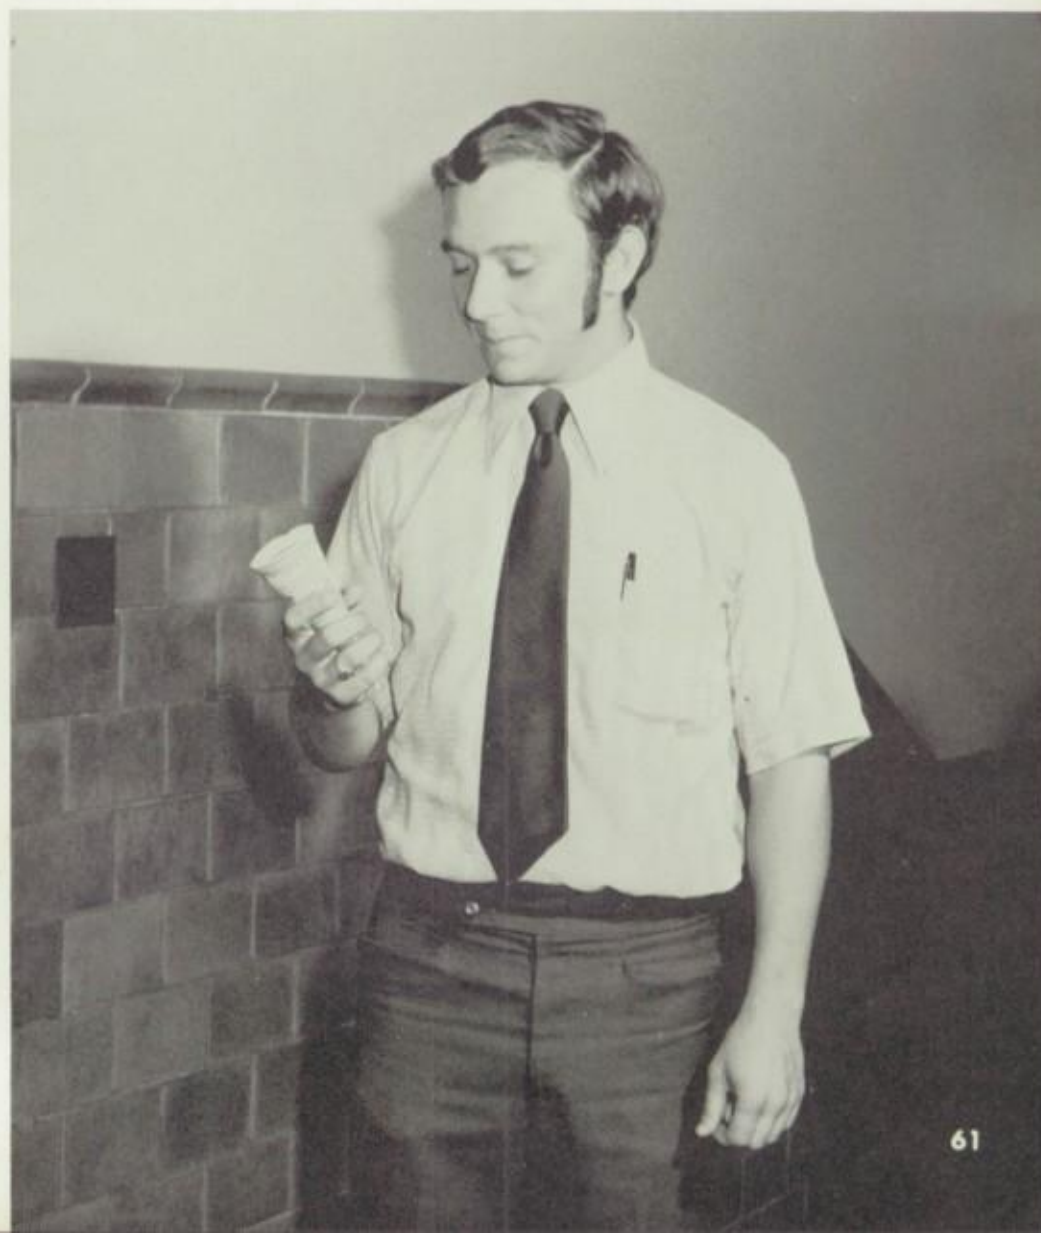

Mrs. Janice Mangini displayed a certain bravery in teaching English to the junior high and freshmen students, and heading the Junior High cheerleaders.

As our new Latin teacher, Miss Doris Akam added a new face to the language department and the N. C. S. faculty. Besides teaching Latin, she teaches English to a class of eighth graders.

Despite his annual injuries, Mr. John McCarthy, the seventh grade advisor, continued to teach the much needed art of communications to his Junior High students.

MISS DORIS AKAM

MR. JOHN McCARTHY

A Job Well Done

MRS. HANNAH McDOUGAL

MR. JOSEPH ANNESI

MR. THOMAS MEADE

MRS. KAY CLARK

Mrs. Hannah McDougal teaches only one class this year, French II. She agreed to do this because she didn't want their first year of French to be wasted. Mrs. McDougal deserves a special thanks from the Naples students for her years of service, pushing us through the regents.

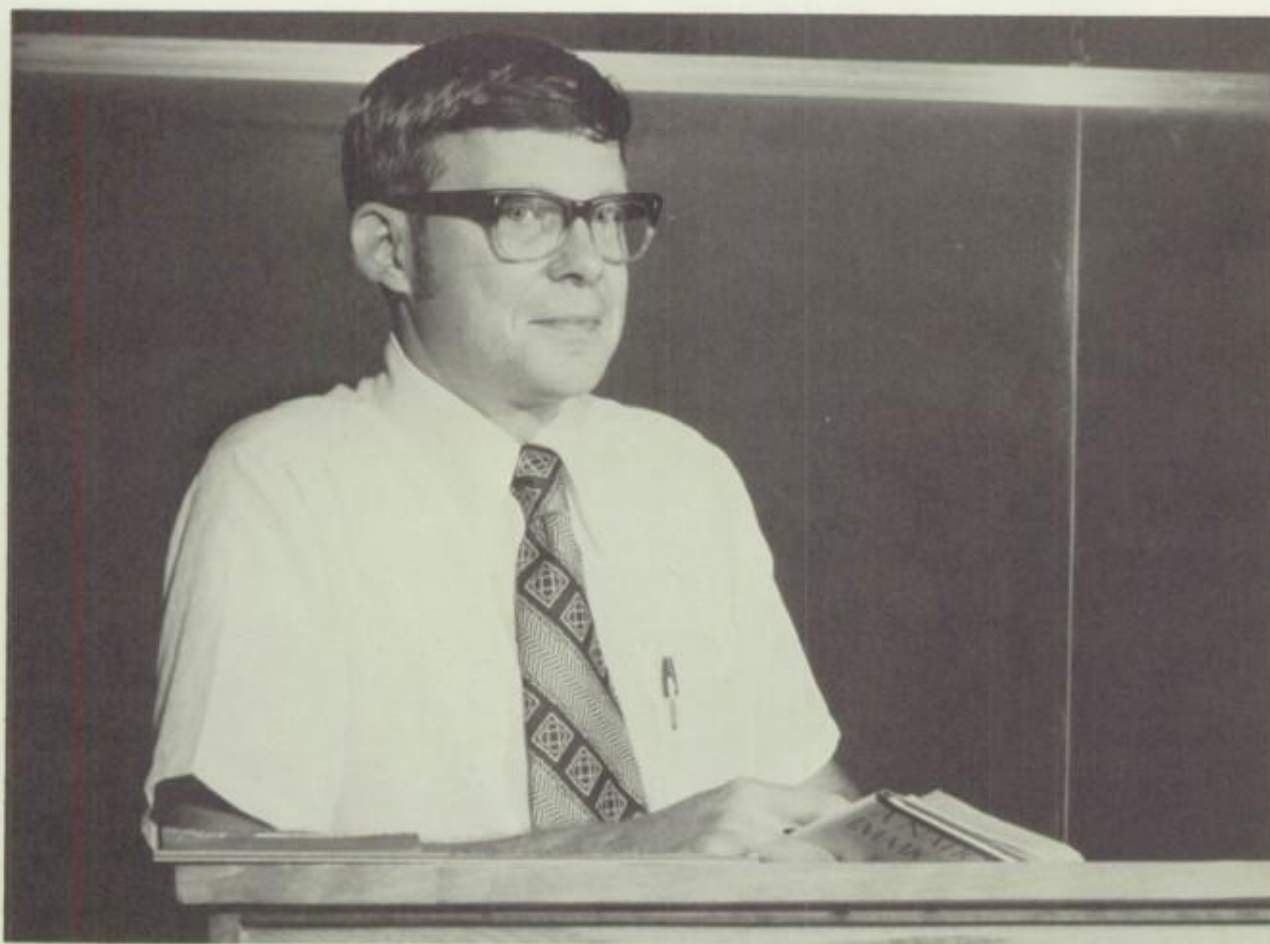

Mr. Joseph Annesi teaches his sophomores the intricacies of World History. He also serves as advisor to the Sophomore Class.

Mr. Thomas "Boss" Meade gets the point across to his freshmen and seniors. In addition to his classes, he is Freshman Class advisor and is the very capable assistant coach of the swim team.

Mrs. Kay Clark is always willing to lend a helping hand to her students. She teaches Remedial Reading.

As head of the History Department, Mr. William Kramp taught his juniors the mysteries of American politics. In addition to this and coaching the bowling team, he advised the Senior Class.

Mr. William Moesch, in his first year at N.C.S., made Spanish come alive for his students. He also led the tennis team to a successful season.

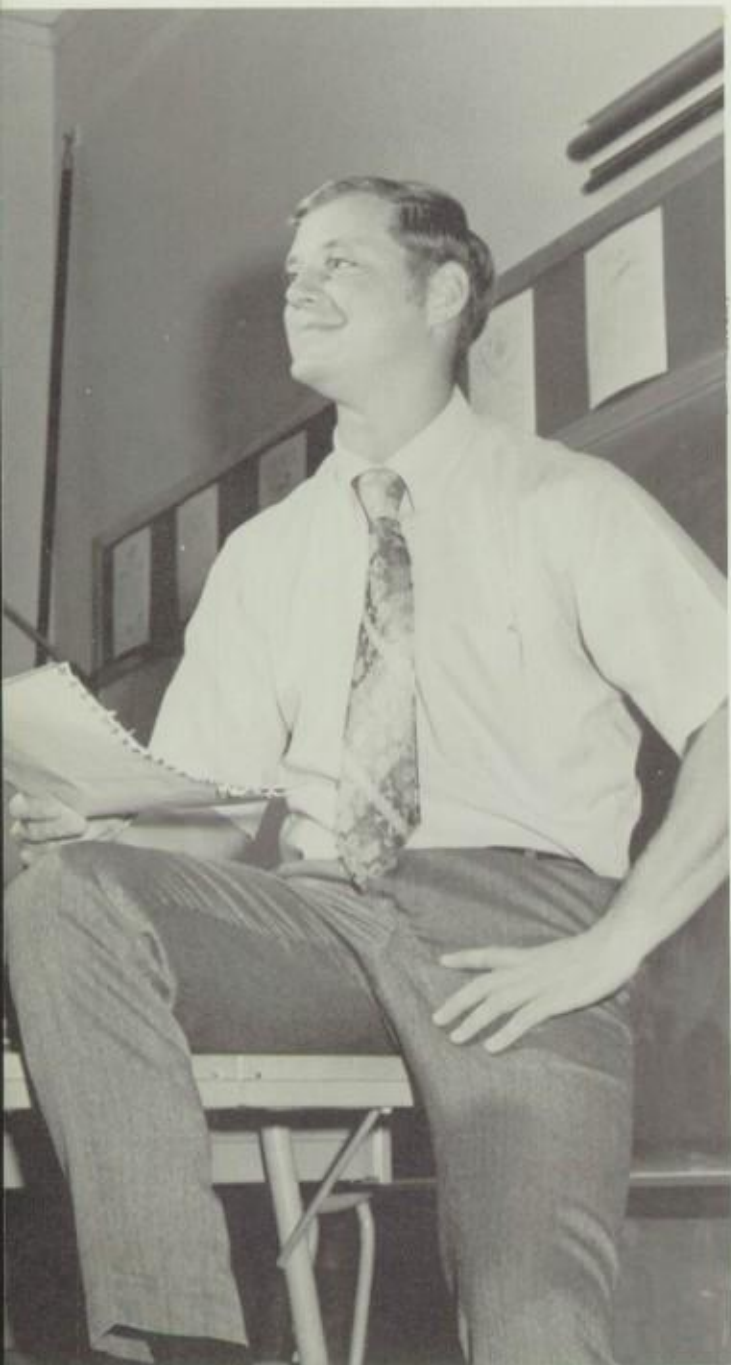

MR. WILLIAM KRAMP

MR. WILLIAM MOESCH

Sharing Knowledge . . .

MR. MICHAEL SALTER

Mr. Michael Salter, teacher of junior high math, proved himself a superstar coach by producing a winning Junior High basketball team.

MR. KARL SCHULZ

MR. ANTHONY PARLAVE

MR. JOSEPH KOVALOVSKY

MR. DAVID BRINCKERHOFF

During his fifth year of teaching algebra and geometry at N.C.S., Mr. Parlave has become quite an expert. He is also an expert at greasing cars.

Mr. Karl Schulz is a newcomer to N.C.S. He is head of the Math Department and teaches math 11 and 12.

Mrs. Pamela Hawkes has broken the barrier of male domination of the science department. She teaches physics and Junior High science.

Mr. David Brinckerhoff, in charge of chemistry and Junior High science, proved himself an able man not only in the lab, but also on the tennis court.

Our biology teacher, Mr. Reigelsperger, frequently interrupted the theory of evolution for tales of his son, "The Kid." He also worked well with the swim team.

Mr. Kovalovsky, head of the Science Department, taught his students the wonders of the earth. He also coaches the White Dolphins.

The Past for the Future.

The job of being an editor on the yearbook staff is not one of ease. Pressure from deadlines and the people in charge make the task very difficult, but the finished yearbook, a job well done, gives the editors great pride. Much credit is due for a hard task well done.

The yearbook staff did a great job in helping produce this year's book. They relieved the editors from the small but very often important jobs that would make an editor's job unbearable. We would also like to extend special thanks to Miss Zwicker for advising the staff and staying late many times to help us meet our deadlines.

The photography club is fast becoming a very valuable and essential aid to the yearbook. They supply action shots of events that a professional photographer could not take. They perform a vital job in producing a yearbook.

Clubs Help Make School

The Audio Visual Club was in charge of the recorder, movie, and filmstrip projectors. They organized these machines and made them available to teachers.

Not only did the kids in the Library Club learn about the library, but they did quite a few important tasks such as putting books back on the shelves and filing cards. The whole student body benefits from the jobs performed by this small group.

The students' say in how the school should be run is channeled through the Student Council. Not only do they carry on school government, but they care for and plan the very important school calendar.

The Foreign Language Club gives the language student an insight into the culture and customs of the people whose language they study.

Flags and Music, Naples' Pride

The Senior Band was pushed onward and upward by the enthusiasms of the Band Boosters, parents concerned about the appearance and performance of our band. Mr. Moore's advice and direction made the difference between a mediocre and a great band.

Under the able guidance of Mr. Moore, the Junior Band musicians were prepared for the more difficult challenge of Senior Band.

The Color Guard adds a little more color and excitement to the band. The new routines they practiced and learned made them look even more snappy.

This year, the Senior Class presented UP THE DOWN STAIRCASE as the Senior Play. We put in long hours of rehearsal, but after it was all over, we all agreed that the results were well worth the hard work. Our director, Mrs. Nacca, provided the guidance and experience necessary for a successful play. The play was a fun experience we'll long remember.

Senior Play

UP THE DOWN STAIRCASE

The Thrill of Victory

This year N.C.S. had probably the youngest team in the league, but what they lacked in experience they more than made up for in sheer spirit. Everyone for miles around knew when the Big Green Machine was coming to town. Naples beat every team they played at least once except Canandiagua, whom they tied once and lost to on the final game of the regular season. They also beat Bloomfield twice by a score of 1-0, beating them out for sectional bid by one point in league standings. Our first sectional game was at St. John Fisher College against Kendall. They easily defeated them by a score of 2-0 and went on to play Kesequa in the semi finals. It was the first time we had been to the semi-finals since 1972. We lost a hard fought game 2-1 in double overtime.

Spirit and Determination

Junior Varsity

Mr. Rose took over as Junior Varsity Basketball coach this year. He took a team comprised almost entirely of freshmen and molded them into a winner. This team, together with the young varsity team, indicates a bright basketball future for Naples.

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders were finally able to wear the new uniforms they received last year. They provided the encouragement that our J. V. teams needed.

JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS:

This year, Naples had a basketball team we could be proud of. They were one of the fastest, most determined teams in the league. Although they lacked height, they were never out of a game. Coach Schenk provided the experience and leadership necessary for a great team.

The cheerleaders provided the spark and enthusiasm that kept the players going. Miss Arre took over the job of advisor this year and did an excellent job.

Varsity Baseball

Last year's Varsity Tennis Team compiled a 6 win and 6 loss record. The team, coached by Mr. Wright, finished third in its division, behind Dundee and Victor. Mr. Brinckerhoff helped the J.V. perfect their game.

The Baseball Team was ably coached by Mr. Annesi. The team's leading pitcher and batter was Charlie Davis. He averaged one strike out per inning. Both he and Marty Wirth were selected to the league All-Star Team.

but When I became a man

This year's freshmen class really added a lot to our high school. Besides actively participating in sports, cheerleading, and clubs, the freshmen's "spirit of '76" carried over to their class activities such as their dance, movie, and field day. Being the largest class in high school, the freshmen always made their numbers felt in school and extra-curricular events.

The sophomore class was one of the most united classes that Naples has ever experienced. Besides working together to make ordinary class activities, their dance and movie a success, this hard working class directed a successful Operation Santa. As a class the Sophomores were very industrious as was illustrated in their magazine sales - the highest total sales holders in the school. The sophomores followed tradition and ordered their class rings early in the year. All sophomores were an asset to Naples this year.

I put away childish things."

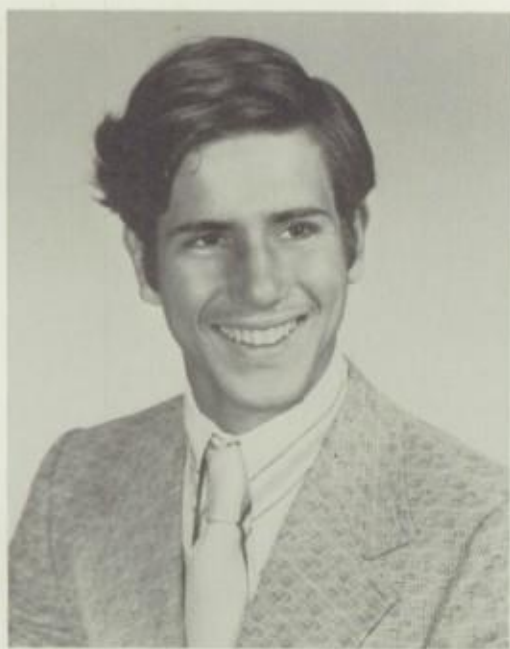

Juniors contributed a great deal of enthusiasm to NCS this year. They started off the year by becoming second in magazine sales competition. Then they organized a school newspaper under the supervision of Mr. Vierhile. Their Operation Exchange campaign was organized earlier this year than in previous years. The big excitement in the junior year was the Junior-Senior Prom which has improved every year; this year's was the best. Without the Junior Class to promote school spirit, especially in sports, this would have been a lot less fun.
